Introduction

After those trainings partners from Serbia begun to work intensively on preparation of the material for PPM training courses, as well as guidelines for the technological enhancement of teaching and learning.

In order to optimize publishing process, at online CMT held on 22nd March 2021, coordinators agreed to form Editorial board for training material related to activity 2.2, 2.3 and 2.4.

REPORT - UNI

From December, the series of training courses has begun organized with the goal of preparation of training materials and strengthening teaching competences. Training were held by EU institutions. Some trainings were held online, some blended and some in-person, depending on the current circumstances with Covid.

At UNI, the blended training for usage of modern pedagogical and methodological principles in teaching and learning was organized. Thanks to LifeSize video-conferencing equipment, the training was held blended, so it was followed by teachers from all Serbian and Albanian partner universities.

The training with UNIOVI begun online, but, thankfully, situation has improved and latter part of the training was held in-person with interactive workshops being heavily implemented.

Participants of all trainings had their knowledge tested and most trainings then gave certificates.

Training with Ostrava took place in Nis parallel to the one with Oviedo. All partner institutions were participating and Irina Perfilieva (professor fom Ostrava) and Irene Diaz (professor from Oviedo), who are engaged on the master studies on computer science department, Faculty of sciences and mathematics, UNI as teachers from abroad had given presentations to students, which received great praises from students of the faculty.

Professor Tatjana Andjelkovic and Ivana Kokic from UNI have unveiled the remote laboratory and ways of following experiments from distant locations. The training was held in person, as a complement to the blended training held by UNIKG.

Professors from Nis have also participated in the in-person training held in Novi Sad, but have (due to timely obligations back in Nis) had to return a bit before the end.

The experience-rich (in organizing English competences training) teachers from UNI have held an online English competences training, with around 116 teachers from all partner institutions having improved their English proficiencies. Exam-taking for certificates was don in-person at each of the partner institutions. Professor Biljana Misic, who has prepared the content and training materials in collaboration with the coordinator, Jelena Ignjatovic, was the leader of the renowned TEMPUS project FUSE. Her knowledge was successfully shared to all participants in this training. Prepared training materials are actually inspired by materials from the course EMI (English as a Medium of Instruction), which are traditionally, since the end of the FUSE project, held every year at UNI to professors from all faculties. The materials have been adapted to suit professors of natural and mathematical sciences at academic writing has been added as a new topic.
